Past 7 years

These girls are ready to hit the town.

Picture perfect.

Hey there.

Chi Phi with a winter break.

Cheese!

Chubbies.

Heather wishes a quick congrats to Patti after graduating.

Basketball at its finest!

Having fun in the hall.

Welcome

@ Chowan!...

No time to waste. Hanging in the halls.

Need a nap. Nick?

Having the right away.

Homecoming is a time to catch up with old friends.

Strike a pose!

Study groups can be fun!

Here's looking at you (and me), kid.

Nikkie and Lindsey at an STretreat.

Chris showing how happy he is to be a grad.

Mikkie Lindsey and Aaron stop for a quick picture before heading 2 Chubbies howlin' night.

Do use Crest?..Beth and Stacie do!

Seniors showing everyone how it is done!

ORIENTATION

THROUGH THE YEARS, ORIENTATION HAS BEEN THE PLACE FOR NEW STUDENTS TO SING AND DANCE, LEARN TO WORK TOGETHER, AND PARTICIPATE IN MANY GROUP ACTIVITIES. BUT MOST IMPORTANTLY, IN PARTICIPATING IN THE ORIENTATION EVENTS STUDENTS HAVE MADE LIFELONG FRIENDS DURING THEIR FIRST FEW DAYS IN COLLEGE.

Homecoming Themes

- 1998 150th Anniversary Ball
- 1999 Celebrating 150 Years
- 2000 Celebrating Our Past:
Building Our Future
- 2001 Oasis in the Desert
- 2002 Let's Roll Big Blue
- 2003 Soaring to New Heights

Snowball Revisited

Snowball is a traditional formal dance for students to let loose and have fun. Whether at the Radisson, Founder's Inn, or on the Spirit of Norfolk, Roman students kick back, dance, crown their Princes and Princesses, and have a ball!

Snowball Classics

- 1998 Spirit of Norfolk, Norfolk, Va.
- 1999 Spirit of Norfolk, Norfolk, Va.
- 2000 Marriott, Norfolk, Va.
- 2001 Spirit of Norfolk, Norfolk, Va.
- 2002 Founder's Inn, Virginia Beach, Va.
- 2003 Radisson, Norfolk, Va.

History Major Genevieve could always be seen wheeling around campus with an encouraging smile. This fact was noted at the History Club Awards night where Genevieve received the Sunshine Smile Award. A servant in the model of Christ, her extraordinary strength and commitment to the mission of Chowan served as an inspiration to all who knew her.

Randy Burden

Having grown up in Suffolk, Va., Randy was a four-year letterman while at Chowan. Burden was signed by the Angels as a non-drafted free agent. In 10 games for the Provo Angels, he was 0-0 with a 7.45 earned run average. Steve Ruddy, a Chowan Studio Art Major, honored his close friend with the mural (left) which now hangs in the Helms Center.

Meet the President

Name: M. Christopher White

Family: wife Linda White; 2 sons-Martin and Andrew; 3 grandchildren-
Caroline, Camille, and Turner

2 dogs, Holly and Ivy

Where they live: President's house on the circle drive.

Where they are from: Hartwell,
Georgia.

He has the M. Christopher White
School of Divinity named after him at Gardner-Webb University
Served as President of Gardner-
Webb for 16 years.

Held various positions at Elon
University over his 14 year tenure.

An ordained Baptist minister.

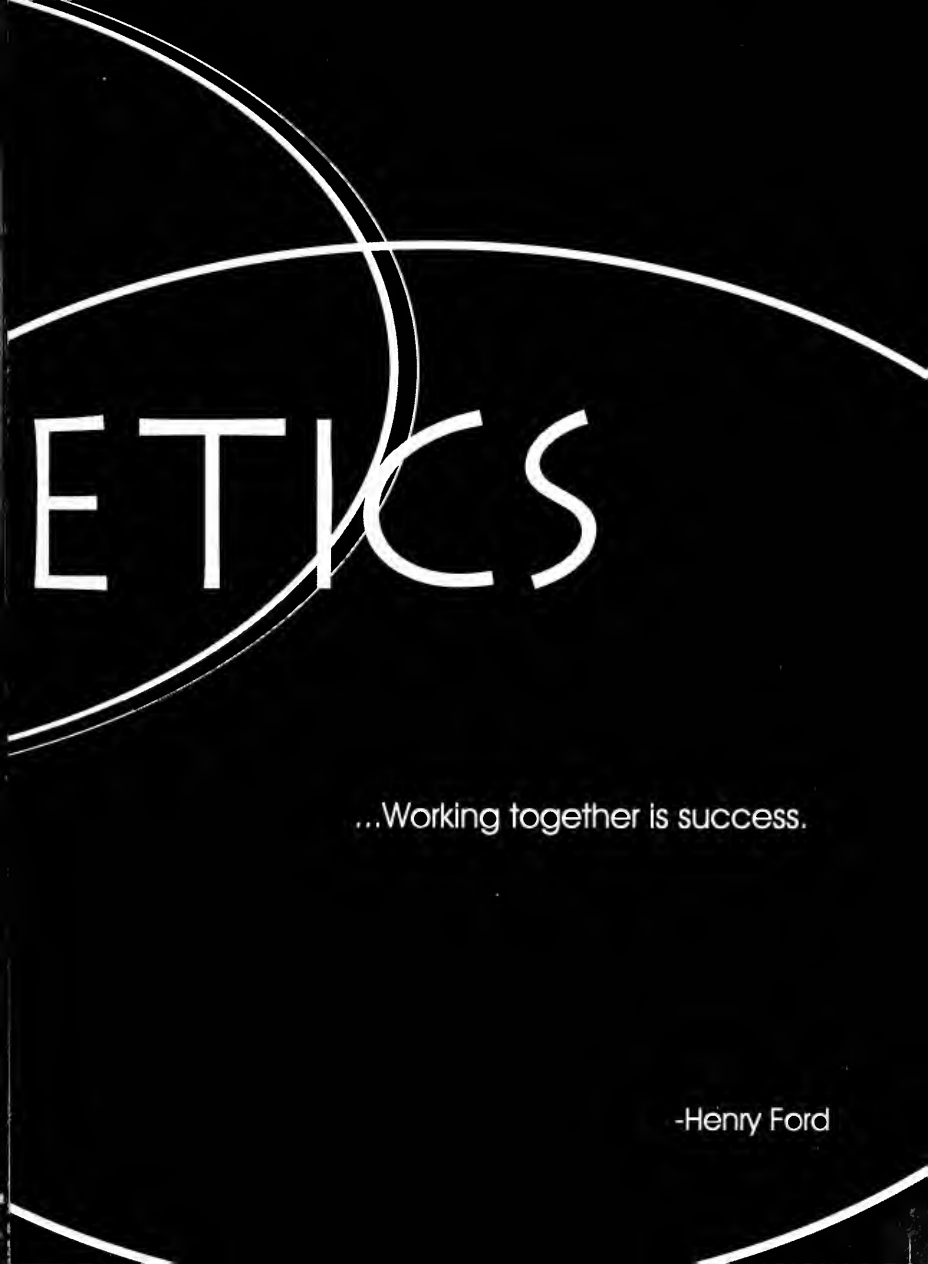

Hobbies include music, sports, and reading.

The White's came to campus in July 2003. Since then, you never know when or where you'll run into them around campus. You can often spot them in the cafe or around Squirrel Park walking their dogs.

Coming together is a beginning.

Four softball players earn All-Conference honors

Junior outfielder Angie Bennett earned Second Team honors after hitting .331 for the Braves, stealing 12 bases, and boasting a .941 fielding percentage. The Eure, NC native was fourth on the team in batting average this season.

Senior first baseman Meryah Breeden earned Second Team honors after a stellar 2004 season. Breeden hit a .380 clip, knocking in 35 runs, and leading the league in doubles at 18. Breeden hit 5 homeruns this season and surpassed the Chowan College career homerun record this season, getting 16 in her four-year career. The Virginia Beach, VA native was third on the team in batting average this season.

Sophomore pitcher/infielder Kayla Meacom earned Second Team honors as a utility player. She started in 19 games as a pitcher, earning a 14-5 overall record and a 1.32 ERA. She also had a .929 fielding percentage from the mound and at second base. The Norfolk, VA native hit at a .304 clip this season.

Sophomore shortstop Ashley Rountree earned Second Team honors after hitting .385 this season, collecting 47 totals hits to lead the team in that category. She knocked in 21 RBI and collected 6 doubles this season. The Belvidere, NC native was second on the team in batting average this season.

IM FALL EVENTS

Flag Football was one of the largest IM events with 82 Chowan students competing for the top honors.

Matt, Shawn and Ed got a tan while playing outside.

Indoor soccer had the second largest number of student participants--76 students ran themselves ragged.

Two volleyball players, Becca Mainquist and Becca Boston, helped their team to win the volleyball intramural championship.

Students enjoyed lunch outside and fun on the inflatables provided by the Campus Programming Board.

The girls battle it out for a winner.

Over 150 students showed up to play in the park on reading day.

Kenneth Wolfskill and Lara Turner take on the roles of father and daughter, Rob and Cathy, in Auburn's award-winning show, 'Proof.'

Confusion settles in as Cathy proclaims that she is also a mathematical genius.

Before his lapse of sanity, Rob entertains his daughter and student with stories of being a mathematician.

Synopsis

On the eve of her twenty-fifth birthday, Catherine, a young woman who has spent years caring for her ailing father, a brilliant but unstable mathematician, must deal with her father's death. To complicate matters, Catherine must confront the arrival of her estranged sister and the affections of one of her father's former students. When a mysterious and revolutionary mathematical proof is discovered in the family's attic, the bonds of friendship, family, and love are stretched to their limits. Ultimately, Catherine must answer the most difficult problem of all: How much of her father's madness - or genius - did she inherit? Shrouded in mystery and mathematics, 'Proof' explores the intangibility of truth and love.

Sisters Cathy and Claire as played by Lara Turner and Lori Stephens.

Chris Howard, Director of Student Life and the staff advisor for Orientation, took the Peer Mentors on a retreat to the Outer Banks during the summer of 2003 before Orientation so that the students could gain a better understanding of their roles as leaders and facilitators. In addition, the students learned more about campus, the services available to students, questions that new students would likely have, and how to help connect students to the campus and community. During the time there, the students also participated in teambuilding activities, such as mini-golf, beach volleyball, and games.

Chris Howard (left) is the staff advisor to Orientation and the Peer Mentor staff. Susana Orozco (middle) was a peer mentor for the second year in a row. One of the group activities was a visit to the lighthouse.

Welcome Week

One of the events during Welcome Week was Hypnotist Steve Meade. Volunteers from the audience were brought onto the stage where they were hypnotized and then went on to entertain the audience with their honest reactions and performances. Another event was the Pool Party in the Helms Center. New students splashed around in the pool and played on the slip 'n slide while the dj provided the evening's music.

The hypnotist and pool party were two of the events that students said they enjoyed the most.

Alum Mark Stevens graciously brought his plane to enhance the Soaring to New Heights theme. He displayed the plane in Squirrel Park.

All of the Court winners, who were announced at the Homecoming Dance the night before, were invited to the field to be recognized.

Homecoming King and Queen were crowned at half-time.

Senior Homecoming Court honories Heather Mandara (above) and Shannon Tew (below) were on the field at half time to receive their sashes and flowers.

For the fourth year, Chowan hosted the Hertford-Gates Relay for Life event in Squirrel Park on April 16-17. This year, organizers set a goal of $177,500 and raised $186,000 for cancer research. They had hoped to exceed the half-million dollar mark and clearly achieved that goal with the four-year total now standing at over $650,000.

During the opening ceremony, names of survivors were read aloud, with Girl Scouts presenting each with daffodils and a Relay pin. The survivors' walk followed, with survivors taking one lap around a portion of the park. After that, caregivers and over 30 teams walked the lap. Later in the evening, over 1,000 luminaries that lined the park were lit in honor of those fighting cancer and in memory of those who have lost the battle, with names being recognized during the special service. Throughout the night into Saturday afternoon, team members walked in the fight against cancer.

While walking, teams were entertained by a variety of performers. These included the Riverview Review Step and Voice, the Chowan College Gospel Choir, Nancy Joyner and the Eastern Brass, the County Line Cloggers, and Beth Burleson and Highway to Heaven. Dr. Deborah DeMarey of Chowan's science department walked the most laps of anyone—100 times around the path.

Hi ho, hi ho, it's off to work I go . . .

School work, part-time work, and internships keep students busy across campus. FUN. Whether working for a department, an administrative office, campus security, Camps and Conferences, or for food services, students keep the wheels of the campus moving. FUN. Many students find their first campus job at the Job Fair held in the Braves Den in September. FUN. Additionally, these students often serve as contact points for their peers who need information about administrative processes. FUN. Quite often, these "contact points" are stopped on the way to class to provide guidance and answer questions. Work is always FUN!

SNOW

The campus was very serene for the first snow--students were not back from winter break yet.

The campus was covered in a white blanket.

When the ice hit campus, it was pretty and also shut the campus down for several days due to the slippery walkways.

When snow came to Murfreesboro, the Chowan bushes and lake looked like a winter wonderland.

Not even the snow could stop Dr. Frazier's family from showing their school spirit.

WHAT A GREAT YEAR IT HAS BEEN!

HEATHER AND
ENJOYING
GRANDPARENTS
VISIT AT THE MALL

HEATHER ROUSE

Dear Heather

Congratulations to you on your graduation day. Today marks a milestone in your life that you will always remember. You will often think about this day with fondness for your classmates, campus, and particularly the tests. Your hard work will allow you to enter a world with knowledge and commitment to be the best at what you chose. As a new graduate, your life is just beginning. There will be many ups and downs, some you'll think mark the end of your world. Clearly, this will not be the case. When these times come and yes they will, remember what you have already overcome by walking across this graduation stage today and you'll persevere. Remember your granddaddy and momma who so much encouraged you to earn your degree. While they can't be with us today, you can bet that they are here in spirit cheering you on. I cannot begin to tell you how proud I am of you. When I look at you, I still see that little girl who held on so tight to my hand and always ran to me when something scared you. You are no longer that little girl but a young woman getting ready to make her mark in this world. Just remember that you can always run back to your dad when you need to. The world is an infinite place, offering you a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow. Perhaps your pot of gold is your heart's desire: the right job, a nice home, or a future husband and family. Just remember to think first and always take small chances. There is nothing wrong with taking risks, everybody does but be smart when you do. There is no substitute for age and experience. Chances are that these can save you a lot of heartaches and stumbles. I wish I had more advice for you. Even so, I can tell you that I know you'll be OK in this world and you'll find that pot of gold. Your momma, granddaddy and entire family have always wanted the very best for you and getting a fine education was the key. I love you more than anything in this world and wish you much success.

You have accomplished much in your four years at Chowan, and we are so proud of the man you have become. As the pictures attest, your form has really improved!
We love you very much. May the LORD continue to order your steps.

Love you forever,
Mom, Dad, and Bruce

Matt,
Words cannot begin to describe how proud we are of you and your accomplishments at Chowan. The past 2 years have passed so quickly. Over these 2 years, we have watched you excel in your study of graphics, CSU, cheerleading, and many other areas at Chowan. I truly feel that God led you to Chowan and He has continued to bless you in your efforts
there. We know in our hearts that you will succeed in whatever you decide to do in life and we will always be there to support and love you in whatever life brings your way.

-LOVE Mom and Dad

Kirston, Congratulations on your superb college achievements.
Throughout your life,
remember 1 Corinthians 12:31
and pursue excellence in all your ways.

Love,
The entire Roth family
